penion funds are equivalent to 12 cents on every dollar paid in wages. At the same time that these business expenses were mounting, the maximum interest rate on loans was reduced, the yield on investments fell below the par value and the banks voluntarily agreed to limit holdings and earnings on higher cost government securities.

"In short our expenses are naturally higher; our charges are not," Mr. Gardner stated, adding "it goes without saying, however, that if the upward trend of costs continues, at least some of the charges we make for our services will inevitably have to come under review."

After referring to the exchange program created by shipments to Europe under credit and the mounting deficit in our transactions with the United States, Mr. Gardner continued that the Canadian dollar problem as it relates to the United States "cannot be resolved entirely through our own efforts."

"What hope there is of a permanent solution," he declared, "depends largely on the extent to which the protective facilities of this entire continent are intelligently shared in the help for our own people in the world to meet their own responsibility for their own economic recovery."

WEDDING

McArthur-Robson

Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock a quiet wedding was held in the rectory of the Holy Trinity Church in Cluny when Rev. F. Maher united in marriage Margaret, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robson of Cluny and Donald, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McArthur of Gleichen.

The bride wore a costume of turquoise blue with long white gloves. Her shoulder length veil arranged in halo style topped a blue feather crown. Her corsage was of tallinn roses. Her only ornament was a cameo necklace, a gift of the groom.

Florence Gibson was bridesmaid and wore a zee costume with long white gloves, and a shoulder length veil topped a rose feather crown. Her corsage was of white gardenias. Oliver Corbett acted as groomsmen.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents.

During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Robson held an open house when about seventy friends called to wish the young couple luck.

Mrs. W. Stewart and Mrs. L. Stewart assisted in serving and Roland James had charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. McArthur left that evening for a two month's honeymoon in Oregon, California and Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hyndman of Lacombe were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ferguson, some 30 years ago Mr. Hyndman was employed with the Crown Lumber Co. here and later was secretary treasurer of the Blackfoot municipality. At that time he was mayor of Gleichen for several years.

Remembrance day services were held yesterday and there was a good attendance despite the snow and cold weather. Rev. Ford and Slater and Majors Parkinson and Brundson of the Salvation Army officiated.

The price of registered seed in the prairie provinces once again has been increased. The reason for the increase is that an extraordinary demand has suddenly sprung up this year from European countries for Canadian registered and certified seed wheat. Many who are in the exporting business are bidding quite high prices for the seed. The price set by seed growers, therefore, are in accordance with the offers they have had from these exporting firms. The possibility is that a much seed will be exported that insufficient will be left for the normal use of prairie farmers to improve their crops.

Polish veterans who came to Canada to work on farms last year are now permitted to purchase their own farms. They will also be permitted to rent farms which they intend to operate themselves. This meets with the general plan for which the Polish veterans were brought to Canada—to increase food production in the Dominion. Nearly two-thirds of the 2,875 Polish veterans who came to Canada last November are still employed on the original farm to which they were assigned. It is felt that those veterans who have so fully cooperated should be given some freedom of choice of the farm on which they will be employed.

Second year of their two year contract. When the Polish veteran has completed one year's employment with the same employer, he may be allowed to make his own arrangements for employment in the second year with a farmer of his own choice. These arrangements are to be made through the local placement offices of the National Employment Service of the department of labour, or the provincial department of agriculture.

WHY DEMOCRACY

The word democracy has suffered much discredit from two causes. First, it has been misused and twisted by extremists of right and left who made it by their own hands not for their glory and a cloak for their totalitarian aims.

Second, it has sometimes stood for nothing more than a democracy because of who inherited the benefits of democracy have failed to live in a way that makes democracy possible.

For democracy in its true sense can only be made up of those who deliberately prefer the good of the whole to their own selfishness, its essence is not the wide sharing of privilege but the wide sharing of responsibility.

The strength of democracy is the strength of human character. But the evidence of history teaches that even at its best human character is not enough.

And so to day we must look beyond the purely human conception of democracy to the further vision of an inspired democracy in which every individual not only contributes his own best but is also instructed and guided. Inspired democracy will not come about by the action of a few leaders appealing to the self interest of the masses, playing down to human nature loaded of point men to their true destiny, in an inspired democracy

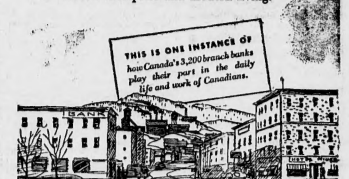

a cafe... a laundry... a Bank

THE VEIN proves rich, a shaft is sunk, and a new mining town springs into life. The main street takes form. Commercial buildings rise.

When such a development occurs, the services of a bank are needed—to handle payrolls, to keep savings accounts and, as the town grows, to furnish bank credit for the needs of the community.

This is a basic pattern in Canada's development. And part of it is the local bank manager, providing those financial services which help Canadian men and women to win the rewards of modern enterprise and modern living.

Chartered Banks Charges Held at Pre-War Level

Despite mounting costs of doing business the rates on charges of Canada's chartered banks are the same as pre-war or actually lower, it was stated by B. C. Gardner, president of the Canadian Bankers Association. "I know of very few businesses," he said, "that can make the same assertion, that in the face of steeply increased costs, charges for the final product or service have not been raised."

Addressing the association's annual meeting, Mr. Gardner noted that the pay rolls of the Canadian banks had increased 90 percent since 1939; taxes increased 104 percent between 1939 and 1946 and contributions to staff

Britain Lands Ships

ONE OF THE GRIEVOUS FEATURES of the recent war was the Battle of the Atlantic. The high rate at which ships carrying vitally needed cargoes from this continent to Britain were destroyed constituted one of the major difficulties in defeating the enemy, and represented staggering losses in men, ships and supplies. In wartime these sinkings were extremely serious, and they have continued to affect the shipping situation ever since because of the critical shortage of ships which resulted from such extensive losses. Ever since the end of the war, efforts have been made to build merchant and passenger ships in sufficient numbers to meet the great post-war demand for shipping space, but many are still needed to fulfil present requirements.

Large Program Is Undertaken

In this connection, the British Ministry of Information has recently given out some details of the ship-building program in that country. The United Kingdom is possessed of a fine tradition for the craft of building ships, and every big ship-building yard there is now carrying out an extensive construction program to replace wartime losses. Ships under construction or on order at the present time are estimated to amount to more than 3,000,000 gross tons, while there are another 3,000,000 tons under repair or being converted for other uses than those for which they were originally built. In spite of the severe shortage of labor and materials with which the builders must contend, Britain is reported to be now building more ships than all other countries put together and is endeavoring to fill not only her own needs but to supply other countries.

To Fill Many Outside Orders

Since the end of the war, overseas countries have ordered 223 ships valued at $200,000,000 with United Kingdom shipbuilders. These do not include large orders from other parts of the British Commonwealth. More ships are being built, however, for British shipping companies than for any other country, these companies they receive more than one-third of the present world construction. Britain is in the words of the article published by the Ministry of Information "making valiant efforts to restore the service to which it owes such a high prestige before the war." It is clear that the building up of her merchant and passenger fleets is a most important factor in post-war recovery, and United Kingdom shipbuilders are to be commended for the splendid effort which they are making at this time.

Railway From Vancouver To Alaska Planned

Project Calls For 1,000 Miles Of New Road To Fairbanks

WASHINGTON.—Plans for construction of a railroad from Vancouver to Fairbanks, Alaska, are under consideration by a group of private investors.

Marshall Ramsey Diggs, Washington counsel for the group, said his clients had been studying the project for several years and he hoped to be able to announce definite plans, along with the names of the backers, within 30 days.

Diggs said the idea calls for taking over 345 miles of railroad now owned by British Columbia and building another 1,000 miles into Fairbanks, where the proposed road would connect with the Alaska railroad.

Diggs predicted that either his group or some other "will start this railroad within three or four years."

"The present plans contemplate that the railroad will be constructed by private capital. We hope that after we reach Alaska our government will aid in the construction but we have received no commitments from it though government officials have shown great interest."

"We are anxious that a railroad be built to the territory for we believe that is the only way it ever will be opened up."

"And, in view of the present Russian situation, we should have such a connection with our territory."

"The railroad will open up vast resources, and in Canada the country is exceedingly rich in natural resources such as coal, timber and pulp wood."

Reporter Gets Even With Girl At Dinner

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—All was even today between a newspaper reporter and a girl who snuffed powder in his soup.

Tom Simmons said that he was tired of women using cosmetics at restaurant tables. So he came prepared for revenge.

While at dinner a girl at the next table "bravely powdered her face," he said. "Some of the powder floated into my soup."

Simmons asked the waiter for a "bowl of hot water."

The next morning Simmons pulled out a tube of shaving cream and a razor and started shaving.

"If the girls can make up their faces in restaurants," Simmons said, "I can shave at the table, too."

OTTAWA.—The amount of United States funds Canadian banks may issue to Canadians needing American dollars without the filing out of a special Foreign Exchange Control form has been reduced from $100 to $25 but a board official said that no change of policy was involved.

Describing the change as purely technical, he said it was made to give the board a better opportunity to scrutinize the amounts of American funds being made available in small amounts in the face of the dwindling American dollar position of Canada.

No change has been made in the maximum amount of $500 which banks may issue to Canadians in American funds without a direct reference to the Foreign Exchange Control Board, but in all cases over $25 a form must be filled out.

In cases where a Canadian requires more than $500 in American funds for any purpose, he must make his application to the Foreign Exchange Control Board.

One of the more important causes of the slow recovery of food production in many parts of the world, and the failure to expand it in others, has been the extreme shortage of fertilizers particularly nitrogen. The fertilizer branch of the Canadian chemical industry witnessed outstanding growth during the war, due mainly to the utilization for fertilizer purposes of excess nitrogen produced for military needs. The manufacture and export of nitrogen fertilizers since the end of the war constitutes a major part on the part of Canada to alleviate the world food shortage by increasing agricultural production. Canada's fertilizer manufacturing industry comprises 23 establishments employing 3,200 workers, with an output valued at $50,000,000. Exports of fertilizer from Canada have increased from $500,000 in 1938 to over $32,000,000 last year. The importance of nitrogenous fertilizers is best illustrated by the fact that only 10 per cent of Canadian production is required for domestic needs and that the balance is able to make a substantial contribution to the agricultural output of more than 50 countries.

There is no question of what shall be done with vegetables during the summer hot when November comes around and the choice is limited, one must depend on different methods of cooking and serving rather than on variety of types. Very often the addition of a dash of unusual spice, a new sauce or a topping of crumbs or cheese will give a common vegetable a glamour all its own. Combination of two vegetables may improve texture or add new taste appeal. Turnips and potatoes mashed together is one of the popular combinations. Another familiar dish is carrots and peas. A few of the outer stalks of celery diced and cooked with the carrots is a blend that is just as attractive and more unusual. If small turnip cubes are mixed with peas and fried mushrooms added, the macédoine is a dish for the gourmet. The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture stress the point of proper cooking of all vegetables until they are just tender and in small amounts of water so as little as possible of the flavor is lost.

All the fun in newspaper columns is not caused by typographical errors, although the public frequently attributes every "ball" to the mechanical department. Take this enlightening sentence in a Alberta paper: "Greenwalt later staggered into a house by the roadside with a story of having been attacked and killed by bandits." A Saskatchewan paper carried this want ad short time ago: "Room for gentlemen and legislators." And here's an ad clipped from a Alberta paper: "Twenty four thoroughbred white leghorn hens; and two roosters just beginning to lay." One newspaper had a "w" instead of "b" with this odd result: "For sale—Wagon, feed trough, trailer bed with vench, pipe cutters." A news paper ad curiosity read: "Man wanted for gardening, also to take charge of a cow who can sing in the choir and blow an organ." One newspaper reporter wrote "Death is not a thing to joke about but recently I sent an item about lightning killing a woman. The dispatch stated the victim was stricken as she worked in her garden. The last sentence read: "The bolt tore her clothing from her body and shocked three persons working nearby." Classified ads furnish most specimens of wooden speech. Here's another: "Wanted an assistant butcher. One able to drive and kill himself preferred." And this one from a paper in the east: "Wanted at Once—Married man with car over forty." Not long ago a magazine spoke of un-fanning windows, but again the typesetter bungled it up in the sentence, "Nothing gives a greater variety to the appearance of a house than a few unframed windows."

that tax rates would continue downward and sounded a warning against excessive inventory accumulations. "Loans to finance excessive or speculative accumulation of stocks of merchandise or over expansion of business may aggravate inflation and are in the interests neither of the community nor of the borrowers concerned," he declared. To demonstrate the adaptability of the Canadian chartered banks, Mr. Gardner showed that commercial banks had increased 45 percent in the past year and 86 percent since the end of the war. As a result of this upward trend in lending, there has been a marked shift in distribution of bank assets. In August, 1939, loans of the Canadian banks were equivalent to 34 percent of all assets. Six years later, at the end of the war, the figure was 51 percent. At August 31, 1947, loans were equivalent to 28 percent of total assets.

In contrast to total holdings of Dominion and provincial government securities were 34 percent of assets in 1939. As a result of war financing, this proportion became 52 percent in August, 1945 and had receded to 43 percent at August 31, 1947.
